Practice Overview

Aarushi practises across all areas of commercial law and public law. This includes contractual disputes, civil fraud, insurance, financial regulation, privacy and data protection, EU relations law, judicial review and human rights. She is regularly in court and has experience of large-scale litigation, as well as shorter applications and appeals on points of law.

Aarushi is ranked as a "Rising Star" in Commercial Litigation (Legal 500) and an "Up & Coming" barrister in Commercial Dispute Resolution (Chambers & Partners). As regards her public law work, Aarushi has also been appointed to the Attorney General's Civil Panel of Counsel (C Panel).

Before coming to the Bar, Aarushi was a dual-qualified solicitor in Australia and England & Wales. Aarushi graduated with an LLB (First Class) from the University of Sydney and an LLM (First Class) from the University of Cambridge. At Cambridge she ranked first in two subjects (Legal History and the Economics of Law and Regulation), and was awarded the President's Prize for significant distinction in law at Queens' College.
